

GDPR

Frequently Asked Questions

Can we still pray for people?

Of Course we can

It's not all about GDPR

With Integrity & Skill – Confidentiality in the Methodist Church

Adopted by the Methodist Conference in 2008

https://www.methodist.org.uk/downloads/Conf08_18_With_Integrity_and_Skill.pdf

No effect to prayer within a personal capacity

- ✓ Spouses;
- ✓ Civil Partnerships
- ✓ Parent / Child relationships;
- ✓ Siblings;
- ✓ Step Parent / Child / Sibling relationships

Cradle Rolls

Do we need to take them down?

No

- Historical documents;
- Limit the information publically displayed;
- Obtain consent moving forward;
- Additional use of the information.

Continued contact

Do you send a birthday card to a baptised child?

Is this expected?

Using your own device

Using your own devices & personal email accounts

“[Councils] must ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of all personal data they hold, even if the data is being processed through personal email accounts or is stored on a privately owned device”

ICO: Fact Sheet for Councils: the use of personal email addresses an devices

Using your own devices & personal email accounts

- Do you know what devices / accounts are being used and by who?
- Who else has access to these devices / accounts?
- How do you control the personal data on the device / account?
- Are people aware of the Data Security Policy?

Questions?