Methodist Property: how to streamline transactions and improve efficiency

 Updated 9 Nov 2020

The planned date of the “Methodist Property: how to streamline transactions and improve efficiency” training session originally booked for Thursday 12th November 2020 has been postponed until Thursday 4th February 2021. This training session is to be hosted by Capsticks who are one of the firms on the Methodist Church’s Panel of Solicitors.

The presentation will include TMCP, the Connexional Team, Capsticks and a Managing Trustee. The session will outline new strategies and processes that have been designed to assist the Managing Trustees with property transactions, to improve efficiency and give increased cost certainty.

Capsticks will also provide an update on recent changes to the planning legislation and how this may affect the Managing Trustees.

The launch of these new processes will be a really positive event with which to start the New Year and it is hoped that the Managing Trustees will join the event.

Further details regarding how to join the event online will be circulated closer to the time. It is anticipated that this event will be held via Zoom or Microsoft Teams.
